

Dear students,

We are happy to announce that three Bard International Network courses will be delivered at EHU in the spring semester 2021:

- Nations and Nationalism (instructor: Victor Martinovich)
- Civic Engagement (instructors: Kseniya Shtalenkova and Natalia Mikhailova)
- Freedom of Expression (instructors: Kseniya Shtalenkova and Maria Laktionkina)

To learn more about the courses, please see the attached files. The registration deadline is February 17th.

To enroll in the Nations and Nationalism go to: <https://forms.gle/RKTsxsp6CeDbYxjM7>

To enroll in the Civic Engagement go to: <https://forms.gle/qiFoZs3EazBf9xyd6>

To enroll in the Freedom of Expression go to: <https://forms.gle/8uDaiknZqt1pGH7W7>

NB: maximum amount of students in each group for 2021 is no more than 15 students!

After students' registration a common meeting on zoom will be held at the beginning of the spring semester, where the instructors will present the courses and answer the students' questions. One student can choose only one course, and at the common meeting it will be possible to change the group if needed. The courses are FREE for all EHU students! Please see details on requirements to enroll in each course in descriptions, provided below.

Please note that Bard International Network courses are obligatory for the students, who are planning to apply for academic exchange program at Bard College. The Bard International Network courses are taught by the faculty from EHU and Bard Network of partner institutions, this semester including: Bard College in Annandale on Hudson, Al-Quds Bard Partnership, American University in Central Asia and Smolny College.
